

COLLEGE ESSAY WORKSHOPS

The best college essays take time to write. But getting started is the hardest part. Come to this workshop and learn how to identify your “story” and craft it into a compelling essay that will tell the admissions reps something more about you.

During the workshop we will use a variety of exercises to help you brainstorm and then we will get started putting pen to paper (or fingers to keyboard).

Workshops include detailed information about writing the essay and a workbook full of helpful tips, brainstorming exercises and sample essays.
